Although it is early in the season the players, old and new handled themselves like professionals. Owing to the fact that the track team has been idle since the indoor meet baselail is the only sport which cugrosses the attention of the Georgetown students.

Couch Foley, of the track team, has analyzed that the track team, has analyzed that the candidates for positions on the team will turn out tomorrow aftermoun. The training table will be started at once with a squad of a dozen men. This number will be increased from time to time. More interest in being manifested in this department of athlethes at Georgetown because a home track and field meet will be held this spring. The date has not yet been fixed, but it will probably be on order to work out properly. In such case, yet been fixed, but it will probably be on called the last to yet here it was a properly in such case.

Notes of Interest About Players. Managers, and Clubs.

Contracts Signed for the Senson Which Will Open Next Month-Hart on American League Magnates-Zimmer and His Retirement

The following players have been signed laring the just week by the Cincinnati ps, and Breitenstein. This gives Manag-McPhee, the following players up to Kahoe, Broitenstein, Steinfeldt, Bergen, Crawford, Magoon, Peitz, Newton, Harley, and Phillips, The ollowing players have not signed: Scott, orcoran, Hahn, Geier, Irwin, Dobbs, and Barreit.

According to well-founded reports, the following will play on the Philadelphia American team: Catchers Harry Smith and Powers; pitchers, Wills and Fraser, both of the National League last year; first baseman, Chishdia; second baseman, Lajoie; shortstop. Dave Fultz, third baseman, Lave Cross; outfielders, Gelex and Crawford of fast year's Cincinnati Club, and Lefty Davis,

Work.

The Business High School baseball team has been organized and the first game of the season will be played on Wednesday with the Gallandet team at Kendall Green. There is plenty of good material at the Rusiness High School and it is expected the nine will make a hard fight for District High School championship bonors. Nine of last year's Philadelphia team are still missing—McFarland, Lajole, Thomas, Slagle, Wolverton, Bernhard, Piatt, Douglass and Fraser—and, if re-to hold a single player. No contract with a bull-player is good, according to that. The American League will have its troubles before it has gone very far."

"Those American League magnates are League star.

According to a Cleveland lawyer, who has drawn up an elaborate opinion for the benefit of Charlie Somers, the National League is the two thousand five hundred and slavy-seventh tentacle of the octopus. It is a wicked and devilish trust out for the long greens, and devoid of all principles which entitle it to recognition either from the public or the courts of record. This opinion is in direct contradiction to the opinion lately obtained by the Philadelphia National Leaguers from a Quaker lawyer. As to the superiority of the Cleveland brand of law to that of Philadelphia, or vice versa, the public must be the single, with a mental reservation to the effect that any Chicago police court attorosy could make the lawyer from Philadelphia and his rival from Cleveland look like a plugged half-nickel. The Cleveland harrister holds that the entire contract of the National League is a conspiracy against the freedom of the isali player, and that, when bound by its provises he is chained, tied, and gaged in a manner not contemplated in the statutes or in the constitution.

Stripped of legal verbage, the Cleveland man's opinion is nothing more than a dozen lawyers and most plain citizens have already seen—that the National League coutract is a legal joke. If has no equity, therefore, as laws look toward equity, the player an even break at any point, for it player an even break at any point, for it player in oven brank at any point, for it player in oven brank at any point, for it player in oven brank at any point, for it player in oven brank at any point, for it player in oven break at any point, for it player in oven break at any point, for it player in oven break at any point, for it player in oven break at any point, for it player contract is a dead lazaw, and it needed no additional lawyers for poople to realize thefact.

The Brooklyn Club has added Pitche Kitson to its string of signed players and the reum is now almost compete The men signed to date include Hughes Kennedy, Kitson, Donovan, pitchers; Kelley and Dahlen, infielders; Keeler and Selieckurst, outfielders, Second Basseman Selieckurst, outfielders, Second Basseman Daly has virtually accepted terms. It is Handon's intention to play Dalien at third base and pur bis new infielder, tlatins, at short dield. He is after a new outfielder, but if he can induce Jenniugs to sign another contract. Kelley will be kept in the outfield.

President Ban Johnson has he official make-up of the Milwanis-cam as follows: Conner and Leah; atchers, Surries, Reidy, Garvin, Doy catchers, Surrks, Reldy, Garvin, Dow-ling, Hasting, and Bettger, pitchers; An-derson, first base; Gilbert, second base; Cauroy, shortstop, Burko, third base; Indiman, leftheld, Duffy, controlled, Waldren, rightfield, Bill Phollips has decided to remain in Chrimuan this season and his signed contract has been received. He writes that he is in excellent condition.

Fire Resk, the much-tested Toleslo and buseman, whose press agents have council him for two years for a benth h the National League has finally suggest with the Cleveland American League int. He will now have a clones in fast

Amos Rusic has been signed to pitch for the Crockman Reds and he will im mediately enter upon practice with the team. The arrangement was brough about by John T. Brush in person, who after a short conference with the famous pitcher, got his aignature to a contrac-officher, got his signature to a contract to stor the coming season with the Concionati team.

Russic is very reflected about the contract and the means which Brush invoked to get his release by Freedman, but it is said that he has been working in the New York magnate for thore than a year and that he mail a big price for the pitcher. It is also said that he pays Bruse $7.800 for the present season and has entered into a contract to pay him $1.200 sent year.

Mrs. Russic was very much opposed to her husband going into the box again, but it is assumed that the salary proved too tempting for her and she gave her con-

ent. Rusle announced that he would re-sort for practice just as soon as he lears from Manager McPhee.

Schriver and McCreery were the only Pittsburg players that did not receive contracts. The latter will play with the Beaver Palls, Pa., team this season.

Manager Davis, of the New York Club, Runounces that he will trade "Kid" Glea-son and Mike Grady and hopes to get "Broadway" Smith for them. The loss of McGraw, Robins chreckengest, and Hemphili put a huge hole in the St. Louis team. Little effort his been made on the part of the Robi-sens to ill the places of these men. Comiskey has landed two more Nation League men, having received the signed contract of Sullivan, the Boston catcher, while the other man, though not an-nounced, is said to be Bobble Lowe, also of the Boston team.

The Western League has decided upo an eight-cinb circuit. This leaves Louis-ville and Indianapolis out in the cold. The two might get up independent teams and day among themselves, for it is not like-y that either will get into any league

There is more than a probability that Pink Hawley will sign a Milwaukee con tract, as the price offered to him by the Milwaukee management overtops the tender of the New York Club, and in addi-tion Pink prefers that end of the earth-Hawley, it is mid, declared himself in favor of the Milwaukee Club ten days

Pitcher Schmidt, who has east his lot with McGraw's new Orioles, says that a team could be made up of the club owners and managers of the American Leaguwhich would beat any team in its circult or any other circuit with a little Training.

This is the way he makes up the team:
Comisky, first base; Manning, second oase; Collins, third base; McGraw, shortstop. McAleer, Duffy, and Stallings, outfielders; Mack, catcher, and Griffith, The option clause of the National cague contracts, of which there has been

o much talk lately, and on which the in nded suit will hinge, is as follows: "It is hereby expressly agreed and un-derstood, for the consideration above mentioned, that the party of the first part, or its assigns, shall have the option or right to renew this contract, with all its terms, provisions and conditions, for another period of six mouths, beginning April 15, and for a similar period in suc cessive years thereafter, and the said party of the second part hereby agrees to party of the second part hereby agrees to perform similar services and be subject to all obligations, duties, and liabilities prescribed in this contract for the period or periods of such renewal ar renewals, provided only that written notice of the exercise of such option of renewal be served upon the said party of the second part grior to the 18th day of October of the current year of this contract, and of the current year of each renewal thereof."

Ed Scott, the Cincinnati, pitcher, has finally made up his mind to join the American League and has signed a Cleveland contract.

Herman McFarland, who has been win tering in Indianapolis, has signed his contract with Chicago American League Club. Comiskey already has three strong outfielders in Hoy, Heidrick, and Jones, and unless McFarland shows brilliant form in practice he may find himself one of the faithful American League players sacrificed to make room for a National

The report that Dick Padden, former captain of the Chicago American League Club, had deserted that organization and signed with the St. Louis National League Club has been confirmed by the player himself. He was counted on as a certainty at second base with the White Stockings, and Manager Comis-key will now have to go on the market and look for another man to fill the position. Presatent Johnson denounces Padden for deserting the Chiesgo Club.

President Ban Johnson says that after the American League Club had announced its intention of invading Washington and Baltimore he received a letter from John I. Rogers, inviting him to place club in Philadelphia, and telling him what action to take in regard to securing grounds in that city; also that Rogers sent representatives to assist the Ameri-can League Committee in closing the deal for grounds in that city. This assistance was declined, and as soon as Johnson got hold of the right ropes in Philadelphia he pulled them to suit bimself.

Manager Haulen, of the Brooklyn Club, who is as familiar with the fluancial enof baseball as with the handling of the ern division of the American League have assumed an average expense for the com-ing season of $80,000. This will call for an outlay of about $500 a day, and means that to break even there will have to be an average attendance, on a 5-cent basis, of average attendance, on a 25-cent basis, of 4,000 people. While it is believed that Manager Hanion's figures are a little large, there is no question that the Ameri-can League has assumed expenses never before shouldered successfully by an or-ganization playing 25-cent ball, yet it should be berne in mind that Hanion is figuring solely from the point of view of a National League manager.
